

Data Privacy Policy

At the FringeYouth Festival, we are committed to protecting the privacy and personal information of all individuals who participate in the Festival. This Data Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, store, and disclose personal information in accordance with applicable data protection laws. By participating in the Festival, you consent to the practices described in this policy.

We may collect and process the following types of personal information:

- Name, age, and contact details (such as email address and phone number) of participants and/or their parents or guardians
- Any additional information voluntarily provided by participants and/or their parents or guardians, such as medical conditions or dietary restrictions
- Event photographs and/or videos and/or information generated during the participant's presence at the Festival

We may use personal information for the following purposes:

- To communicate with participants and/or their parents or guardians regarding Festival-related information, updates, and safety measures
- To organise and manage Festival activities, including registration, scheduling, and allocation of resources
- To ensure the safety and security of participants during the Festival
- To provide tailored support or accommodations based on individual needs or requirements
- To conduct internal record-keeping, data analysis, and reporting
- For marketing and promotional purposes for this Festival and/or any future Festival

We will take reasonable precautions to protect personal information from unauthorised access, use, or disclosure. All personal information collected will be stored securely and accessed only by authorised personnel who require it for Festival-related purposes. We will retain personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this policy or as required by law.

We may disclose personal information to third parties in the following circumstances:

- When required by law or to comply with a legal process
- To our trusted service providers who assist in organising and managing the Festival
- When necessary to protect the safety, rights, or property of participants or the public

By participating in the Festival, participants and/or their parents or guardians provide consent for the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information as described in this policy.

Participants and/or their parents or guardians may withdraw their consent or opt-out of receiving communications from us at any time by contacting us using the information provided below.

We may update this Data Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on our website or communicated directly to participants or their parents or guardians. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to stay informed about how we handle personal information.

Contact Information:

If you have any questions or concerns about our Data Privacy Policy or the handling of personal information, please contact us in writing by email at: hello@fringeyouth.org

By participating in the FringeYouth Festival, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to the terms of this Data Privacy Policy.